Landec Corporation Mourns the Passing of Board Member Charles Macaluso

February 24, 2021

SANTA MARIA, Calif., Feb. 24, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- It is with great sadness that the Landec Corporation (Nasdaq: LNDC) announces the death of board member Charles "Mac" Macaluso who passed away on February 22, 2021.

"Mac was an outstanding advisor and an integral member of our Board. His breadth of knowledge was critical to rebuilding Curation Foods, our long-term growth strategies that support Lifecore, and our recent successful refinancing," said Dr. Albert Bolles, Landec's CEO and President. "It has been a privilege for me and the other Board members to work alongside Mac. He will be greatly missed."

"Mac served our Board with enthusiasm and integrity, and we greatly benefitted from his wisdom and experience. He leaves a legacy of incredible business acumen and passion for excellence that is recognized and appreciated by our entire Board," commented Craig Barbarosh, Landec's Chairman of the Board. "We offer our heartfelt condolences and support to his family."

Mr. Macaluso served as an independent board member at Landec since October 2019. In addition to his board membership, Mr. Macaluso was a member of the Audit Committee and the Curation Focus Committee. With more than four decades of cross-industry experience, he brought deep insight and knowledge from an array of industries. Mr. Macaluso's seat on the Landec Corporation board of directors will not be filled at this time.
